

A bronze sculpture of a doctor's head and shoulders, facing forward. A white stethoscope is draped around the neck, and a white heart is positioned over the chest area. The sculpture is set against a light background with a dark base. The entire image is framed by a dark brown border with a geometric, faceted design on the right side.

Optimal Care needs Daring Doctors

Programme workshop

- ▶ 0. Introduction: chair Lucas Fraza
- ▶ 5. The Daring Doctors movement in the Netherlands; background and aims. Marije Holtrop
- ▶ 15. Overdiagnosis and too much medicine : scientific overview: Niek de Wit,
- ▶ 35. Interactive discussion about the role of the GP in preventing overdiagnosis ; chair
- ▶ 45. Movie : “Brave patients” demonstrating patients’ initiatives in limiting medical interventions. Frederieke Pijbes
- ▶ 55. End of treatment decisions in primary care; examples from the Netherlands: Stan van de Buijs/ Josephine Kan
- ▶ 65. Interactive discussion: the GP’s role in limiting needless medical interventions: chair Peter de Groof
- ▶ 75. closing remarks : chair Peter de Groof